Extremely proud of their new location, Volunteers for Springfield Park, Inc. welcomes the Springfield Gardens community and special guests to its Grand Opening at 156-15 146th Ave, Springfield Gardens, NY 11434.

Queens, NY August 16th, 2023. As part of their mission to provide safe and secure learning spaces for the residents of Springfield Gardens, Volunteers for Springfield Park, VFSP, celebrated this past Saturday, August 12th, 2023, an official Opening Ceremony of its first “VFSP Center for Seniors, Youths and Adults”, with the participation of special guests of Queens County and the City Hall, close friends, family, local companies, and residents.

For the last 8 years, Volunteers for Springfield Park have been the cornerstone in securing safe learning spaces for the residents of Springfield Gardens. VFSP’s continued growth has been the result of meeting and continues to exceed the needs of the residents of Springfield Gardens in a humanitarian approach that is focused on quality of life and community satisfaction.

VFSP offices and Center for Seniors, Youths, Adults is located at 156-15 146th Ave, Springfield Gardens, NY 11434 features multi purposes, offering a computer lab for seniors, youth and adult learning, an activity center, a spacious meeting room area and plenty of parking spaces.

As part of his participation during the ceremony, Gregory L. Hudson, Volunteers for Springfield Park President, emphasized on the organization’s commitment to a community centered approach. Mr. Hudson also highlighted that at VFSP, we have a commitment to this community. This is why we searched for the best location to open this office and learning center.

All attendees enjoyed the participation of New York City council woman Selvena Brooks-Powers, Assembly Member, Khaleel M. Anderson, Members of Queens Community Board 13, and many other friends and family.

With the opening of this new office and Community Center, Volunteers for Springfield Park will begin to consolidate their position as the leader for knowledge and safety.
